

BEST AVAILABLE COPY

Left: Applicant's actual prototype, funded by the California Energy Commission, with brake, generator, dedicated counterweights, and massive parts of the support frame located upwind of a central pivot, counterbalancing the downwind section of the driveshaft and its attached rotors.